

Table of contents

Preface.	V
Abbreviations.	XIII

I. Restructuring and M&A

1. Key terms	1
1.1 Employers and employees	1
(a) Employee	1
(b) Difference between employees and independent contractors.	2
(c) Executive employees.	3
(d) Employer	4
1.2 Operation, company and group	4
(a) Operation/part-operation	4
(b) Company	5
(c) Group.	5
1.3 Works council and works council agreements	5
(a) Establishing works councils.	5
(b) Responsibilities of the works council	6
(c) Co-determination via works council agreements.	7
(d) Expenses of the works council	8
1.4 Co-determination at company level	8
(a) Supervisory board pursuant to the DrittelbG	8
(b) Supervisory board pursuant to the MitbestG	8
1.5 Trade unions, employers' associations and collective bargaining agreements	9
2. Basics of a dismissal	10
2.1 General requirements.	10
(a) Hearing of the works council.	10
(b) Notice of termination.	11
(c) Notice period.	12
(d) General protection against dismissal.	13
(e) Special protection against dismissal	14
(f) Legal action against dismissal	14

Table of contents

(i) Court proceedings	14
(ii) Court settlement	15
2.2 Dismissal for operational reasons	16
(a) Entrepreneurial decision	17
(b) No vacancies in the company	18
(c) Social selection	20
(i) Employees with special protection against dismissal	20
(ii) Comparable employees	20
(iii) Social criteria	21
(iv) Legitimate operational interests	21
(v) List of employees to be dismissed	22
2.3 Alternative ways to end employment	24
(a) Cancellation agreement	24
(b) Dismissal for operational reasons with proffered severance payment (sec. 1a KSchG)	24
2.4 Sample employment documents	25
(a) Sample notice of termination for operational reasons	25
(b) Sample notice of termination with the option of altered employment conditions	26
(c) Sample notice of termination for operational reasons with proffered severance payment (sec. 1a KSchG)	27
(d) Sample of a works council hearing for a planned dismissal for operational reasons	28
3. Types of restructuring measures	31
3.1 Restructuring at the operational level	31
(a) Sale of the entire operation or a part-operation	31
(b) Closure and relocation of operations	32
(c) Outsourcing	33
(d) Other types of restructuring measures	33
3.2 Restructuring by transformation of the company	34
(a) Merger	34
(b) Division	36
(c) Transfer of assets	37
(d) Change of legal form	37
3.3 Share and asset deal	38
3.4 Timeline for asset deal (including employment aspects)	38
4. Restructuring by company transformation	39
4.1 Transformation agreement	39

Table of contents

(a) Responsibility for entering into the agreement.	39
(b) Content of the transformation agreement.	39
4.2 Delivery of the merger/division agreement to the competent works council	41
4.3 Information of the economic committee	42
4.4 Effects on works councils.	43
4.5 Effects on works council agreements	44
4.6 Effects on collective bargaining agreements	44
4.7 Sample employment document – merger agreement (excerpts)	45
5. Transfer of business.	49
5.1 Historical background	49
5.2 Requirements of a transfer of business	50
5.3 Legal consequences for the employees	53
(a) Transfer of employees.	53
(b) Employment conditions continue to apply	53
(c) Transfer of pension obligations	53
5.4 Legal consequences for collective agreements	54
(a) Effects on works council agreements.	54
(b) Effects on collective bargaining agreements	56
(i) Basic principles	56
(ii) References to collective bargaining agreements	57
5.5 Information of the affected employees and right to object.	58
(a) Employees' right to object	59
(b) Employee information requirements.	59
5.6 Rights of employee representatives	61
5.7 Liability of seller and purchaser.	61
5.8 Dismissal due to transfer of business	61
5.9 Sample employment document – information letter pursuant to sec. 613a BGB	62
6. Changes to the operation	67
6.1 Prerequisites for changes to the operation	67
6.2 Reconciliation of interests	69
(a) Content of a reconciliation of interests.	69
(b) Reconciliation of interests proceedings	70
6.3 Social compensation plan.	71
(a) Content of a social compensation plan	71
(b) Enforceability of a social compensation plan	73
(c) Conciliation board proceedings	74

Table of contents

(d) Specifics of collective dismissals	75
(e) Transfer company	76
(f) Social compensation plans with trade unions	80
6.4 Parties to negotiations on a reconciliation of interests and social compensation plan	81
(a) Competence of company works council vs. local works councils	81
(b) Practical advice on determining which works council is competent	82
6.5 Timeline for negotiations on reconciliation of interests and social compensation plan	83
6.6 Sample employment documents	84
(a) Reconciliation of interests	84
(b) Social compensation plan	87
7. M&A – employment aspects	93
7.1 Consequences of share deal, asset deal or transformation	93
7.2 Due diligence	95
7.3 Indemnities, representations and warranties (asset deal)	96
7.4 Sample employment documents	99
(a) Due diligence request list – employment matters	99
(b) Employment clause for sale and purchase agreement (asset deal)	102

II. Restructuring in a crisis

1. Basics of insolvency law	105
2. Protection of remuneration	108
3. Specifics of dismissals and termination of works council agreements	110
3.1 Termination of employment relationships	110
3.2 Termination of works council agreements and social compensation plans	111
4. Change to the operation during insolvency proceedings	111
5. Acquisition of companies during insolvency proceedings	112

III. Selected laws

1. Civil Code	115
2. Act against Unfair Dismissal	123
3. Works Constitution Act	144
4. Collective Bargaining Agreement Act	228
5. Act for Co-determination of Employees on Supervisory Boards. . .	234
6. Act for One-Third Participation of Employees on Supervisory Boards	250
7. Company Transformation Act	255
8. Insolvency Act	271
Glossary	281
Subject index	295